

“Aryabhatta National Maths Competition – 2026” is now accepting registrations; find out how to apply here.

NEW DELHI: All India Council For Technical Skill Development (AICTSD) has issued a notification for conducting "Aryabhatta National Maths Competition - 2026" on its official website. Through this competition, the AICTSD search the "Great Technology Scientist of Future India - 2026". Any school or college student who want to present their mathematical skills at the national level and becoming the technology scientist of future India – 2026 can apply.

If you think, you can clear the competition and become the Technology Scientist of future India, then this exam is surely for you.

Important Dates

Sr.No	Events	Date
1	Last Date of Registration	30th April 2026
2	Online Exam Date	21st May 2026
3	Final Result Date	30th June 2026

Who can apply?

- Any school student from std. 4th - 12th can apply.
- Any college student can apply.

Application Fees - Online application fee is Rs. 290/-

How to Apply– Please visit website & apply – www.aicstd.com/anmc OR Contact your school.

Prize Money - First Prize : Rs. 1 Lakh | Second Prize : Rs. 50,000 | Third Prize : 25,000